The Hon. Mike Bonin
Los Angeles City Council
Transportation Committee Chair, Metro Board Member

Mike Bonin represents the 11th District on the Los Angeles City Council. As Councilmember for the city’s Westside, Mike’s priorities are to promote mass transit and traffic relief, protect the environment, and use technology to make government more effective, efficient and transparent.

A regular user of mass transit who commutes to work by bus or train at least once a week, Mike is a key player in regional transportation matters. He is chair of the council's Transportation Committee, a member of the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority and vice chair of the Metro Expo Line Construction Authority.

In addition to his transportation portfolio, Mike is also vice-chair of the council's committee on Innovation, Technology & General Services, and serves as a member of the committees on Budget & Finance, Public Safety, and Trade, Commerce & Tourism, which oversees LAX International Airport.

Mike took office July 1, after winning a landslide victory in the March 2013 municipal primary. He garnered 62 percent of the vote in a four-person race, winning more votes than any other candidate for city council, and the highest proportion of the vote that any first-time candidate has obtained in a council primary in ten years. He quickly made a mark on the City Council - immediately winning approval for the repeal of an unpopular policy that ticketed motorists for parking at broken meters; and earning praise for his proposal to equip firefighters with modern technology, such as iPads or tablets.

Mike has worked on behalf of Westside neighborhoods since 1996, working in senior positions for Councilmember Bill Rosendahl, Congresswoman Jane Harman, and Councilwoman Ruth Galanter. Mike also served as a regional field organizer in California for Barack Obama’s 2008 presidential campaign, and was the co-founder and program director of Camp Courage, an acclaimed training program for community organizers fighting for the freedom to marry for the LGBT community.

Mike lives in Mar Vista with his partner, Sean Arian, a policy expert in economic development and green jobs creation. Mike is a member of St. Monica’s Church in Santa Monica. A former newspaper reporter, Mike graduated from Harvard University in 1989 with a B.A. in United States History.
