

Los Angeles Area
Chamber of Commerce

LUCY DUNN
COMMISSIONER
CALIFORNIA TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

Lucetta “Lucy” Dunn was recently appointed to the California Transportation Commission in June 2008. Currently, she also serves as President and CEO of the Orange County Business Council. Before this position, Dunn was previously appointed by Governor Schwarzenegger in 2004 to serve as Director of the California Department of Housing and Community Development. In the private sector, she served as Executive Vice President of Hearthside Homes, a division of California Coastal Communities. Dunn also owned a private practice law firm from 1981 to 1987 and is admitted to practice before the California State Bar, the federal bar and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Dunn received the California State Legislature “Woman of the Year 1997 Award” for her civic involvement, influence and participation in public policy task forces. In 2001, she served as the first woman president of the Building Industry Association of Southern California and was slated to be president of the California Building Industry Association when Governor Schwarzenegger appointed her to his team. In 2005, she received CBIA’s “D. Gregg Brown Award” for her work advocating housing and homeownership.

She has also been a director and member of a number of non-profit organizations including the Building Industry Legal Defense Foundation and the Bolsa Chica Conservancy.

Dunn is the mother of two sons and resides in Coto de Caza.