LOS ANGELES – The Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce announced today its endorsement of Monica Rodriguez in her campaign to represent Los Angeles City Council District 7 and Tamar Galatzan in her campaign for the Los Angeles Unified School District Board.

“Monica’s commitment to creating jobs and growing our economy will improve the quality of life for all Angelenos, especially working families,” said Chamber President & CEO Gary Toebben. “We believe in her long-term commitment to the future of L.A.”

The Chamber’s Political Action Committee met with selected candidates before deciding who to endorse for the two races.

“We applaud Tamar’s commitment to strengthening our public schools and eliminating bureaucratic waste,” Toebben said. “Every school district needs leaders like Tamar.”
